MR. CLIFFORD LOWDENBACK,
Superintendent Greenup County Schools

This is the first year Mr. Lowdenback has served as our Superintendent. He has been a teacher, coach, and a high school principal, thus serving as an educator in Greenup County, Kenton County, Harrison County, and at Covington and Frankfort city schools, for some thirty years. Mr. Lowdenback received his AB Degree from Lincoln Memorial University and MA Degree from the University of Cincinnati. He has also attended the University of Kentucky and has attended school in Paris, France. His family consists of his wife, Annelle and two children: Mari and Eddie Joe. At the present time he is residing at South Shore, Kentucky.

ADMINISTRATION

MR. CHARLES BANKS, Principal

Mr. Banks has served this county as a coach, a teacher, and an elementary school principal prior to coming to Wurtland as the high school principal. He received his AB and MA from the Morehead State University at Morehead, Kentucky. He has served his country as a Marine and worked in industry before pursuing a teaching career. At the present time he resides with Mr. and Mrs. Bill Ramey at Argillite, Kentucky.

CLASS HISTORY

As the prelude of our high school days 220 anxious Freshmen entered the doors of Wurtland High School in nineteen hundred sixty three. After making acquaintances, we held our first class meeting to elect officers. The results were: Johnny Johnson, President; Toni Eastham, Vice-President; and Carolyn Oliver, Secretary-Treasurer. We were guided through the year by: Mrs. Phyllis Eastham, Mr. David Adams, Mrs. Louise Nelson, Mr. Donald Counts, and Mr. Burma Fletcher. This was our first successful step.

The following year 181 resolved Sophomores were welcomed back to Wurtland. We now had an idea of the problems we were facing and we knew what was expected of us. Being here for one specified reason, "the betterment of our education," we also managed to occupy our time with various fun-filled activities. Our leaders were: Toni Eastham, President; Larry Fraley, Vice-President; Robert Potter, Secretary; Ruth Church, Treasurer; and Kenny Mullins, Reporter. Our sponsors were: Mr. Larry Jordan, Mrs. Louise Nelson, Mrs. Betty Deskins, and Mrs. Doris Williams. Linda Haight was our royalty for the year as Valentine Queen.

Another promotion! This September we are 149 jovial Juniors with responsibility. We have a prom to plan. Successfully we held our Junior-Senior Prom using "Paradise Isle" as our theme. Miss Linda Wicker represented us as Prom Queen. The officers were: Danny Fraley, President; David Dalton, Vice-President; Mary Hixon, Secretary; Toni Eastham, Treasurer; and Linda Haight, Reporter. Our helpful, aiding sponsors were: Mr. Roger E. Grubb, Mr. Donald Liles, Mrs. Mary Nelson, and Mrs. Catherine McDaniel.

In conclusion to our high school days 105 proud, arrogant Seniors step through the doors of Wurtland High School. This is the most meaningful year of all and we have completed the task which we now linger to look upon with pride. Our representations of royalty are Miss Anita Akers as Snowball Queen, Miss Ruth Church as Basketball Queen, and Carolyn Oliver as Miss Pioneer. The leaders for the year are: Danny Fraley, President; Barbara Ross, Vice-President; James Hall, Secretary; Lanny Fraley, Treasurer; and Anita Akers, Reporter. Our assisting sponsors are: Mrs. Phyllis Eastham. Miss Clara Baker, and Mr. Donald Liles.

Well Seniors, here we are nineteen hundred sixty seven. Finally, after four years of accomplishment, we are leaving "our friends," "our faculty," and "our school" never to return again as students. Cherished memories of days gone by will remain constantly in our minds as we follow our future paths. We owe tribute to our parents, as well as our faculty, for the love and guidance we have received. We feel depressed because we must leave, but we also feel joy for the success we have obtained. Wish us luck as we say, "FAREWELL WURTLAND!"

BOARD AND SUPERINTENDENT

The Yearbook Staff, the Faculty and the Students here at the Wurtland High School have worked extremely hard to make this a successful year, however, we all realize that we cannot obtain success without the aid and leadership of the administration. We feel that the Board and the Superintendent has played a big part in each and every accomplishment which has been made this past year and without their assistance, there would be no school . . . by and through their leadership we shall move forward.
